Little Things Matter.

That's the theme of this year's Pacifica Beach Coalition's Earth Day of Action and EcoFest on April 26th.

Volunteers will be cleaning up Pacifica's beaches and parks and streets...the entire city...from 9am to 11am. Little things matter so everyone will be encouraged to clean up any debris, no matter how small. Volunteers will also help with habitat restoration and gardening.

Lots of cigarette butts will be picked up...it's always the number one item picked up in Pacifica and at all California cleanups. A couple of reminders: if you smoke, keep trying to quit...it often takes many tries... and when you finish that cigarette, dispose of it properly!!

The big celebration after the cleanup is at Linda Mar Beach from 11:30am to 3pm featuring live
