Do you care about the environment, the ocean, whales, sea lions, and wildlife? Do you pick up litter on your walks or have you wanted to do more to help the environment? Joining the Pacifica Beach Coalition may be just the right thing for you. We are a diverse group of individuals who care about the environment and we invite you to join us. Our next meeting is Tuesday, Jan. 10, in the community room at the Pacifica Library at 104 Hilton Lane at 6 p.m.

The Pacifica Beach Coalition is dedicated to preserving the ocean, coastal habitat and wildlife, and ending litter, through advocacy, education, community building, and citizen action. We work together to inspire and engage everyone to help the ocean. Since 2005 our two annual City Wide Cleanup events, Earth Day and Coastal Cleanup Day ,have engaged over 25,000 volunteers to remove almost 100,000 pounds of trash from our city streets, beaches and coastline. And this total does not include our three monthly beach cleanups at Linda Mar, Rockaway, and Sharp Park beach or the numerous special cleanups we lead for businesses, schools and special groups.

As we head into a New Year, there are dozens of roles to be filled within the Pacifica Beach Coalition. From taking photos, being a site captain, writing articles, helping with our database or organizing Earth Day, your talents and voice will be valued and appreciated.

We need you; the earth needs you! Please call 355-1668 if you have any questions, or feel free to join us at our next meeting
