

NUDIBRANCHS

Nudibranchs are small, colorful sea creatures that can be found in oceans all around the world. Their common name is sea slug. They have soft bodies and no shells, and they come in a variety of colors and patterns, including red, orange, yellow, green, blue, and purple. Nudibranchs are usually only a few inches long, and some have gills on their backs that they use to breathe underwater.

1. Nudibranchs are found in _____ all around the world.
2. Nudibranchs have no _____.
3. Their common name is _____.
4. Colors that nudibranchs can be include _____ and _____.
5. Some sea slugs have _____ on their backs, used for breathing.